FARMERS' AND MECHANICS' STORE.

ONE PRICE TO ALL!

For the past thirty days an army of carpenters and decorators have [illegible] engaged in building and making extensive [illegible] our store. The architect informs [illegible] that he will soon be ready to [illegible] move the front of our building, and [illegible] and to make important alterations in every department, we concluded, rather than [illegible] store goods, to give them to the public. We have in transit over 100 cases of Dry Goods. We have stored in Bickel's warehouse over 30 cases Dress Goods. Each and every department is now choked with goods, and the conclusion that we have arrived at is, that on

MONDAY MORNING,

May 16, at 9 A. M., and until further notice, the price for every article and in every department has been CUT to such an extent that the departments will be clear in a very short time. In a great many [illegible] we have

A Very Interesting Talk by Jay Gould.

THE CLAN NA GAEL DISRUPTED

The Marquis de Mores Arrested—A Hard Blow at Trades Unionism—An Actress Killed in Colorado

GOULD'S TESTIMONY

He has Nothing to Conceal and Talks in an Interesting Way

NEW YORK, May 19.—When the Pacific railway commission got to work this morning, Jay Gould resumed the witness stand and the inquisition was continued by Commissioner Anderson. [illegible] testified that the provisions of the consolidated mortgage trust were strictly complied with by the trust, and the bonds issued as therein provided.

Gould was shown a transcript of transactions in consolidated bonds furnished by the Union Pacific Company which would seem to indicate that the trustees had not [illegible] the trust.

Gould said that was the Union Pacific's account, of which he knew nothing; that the true way to get at the matter was to examine the accounts of the trustees kept by Mr. Calef, who could be got to make the necessary explanation. The trustees only charged the amounts named in the mortgage. The accounts you show are of negotiations with the Union Pacific and they could get their own prices. You will find that the accounts of the trustees will balance with the mortgages.

Anderson said that he could not inquire intelligently with reference to the commission of the trust securities with the accounts kept by Calef.

Gould gave Sergeant-at-Arms Walsh a note directing Calef to appear before the commission with the books showing the issue of bonds.

WHAT HE WOULD HAVE DONE

After quoting a great many figures showing the times and details of consolidation, Gould said: I claim that if I were a creditor of the road like the government I would not have hesitated in granting an extension of time in paying the subsidy even if the road were paying dividends, unless the government wanted to take the road and run it. If it did, here was a chance for it.

Mr. Littler here branched off from his subject of investigation to ask for his own information Gould's opinion with reference to the interstate commerce bill.

Gould said: There is a great deal of good and some bad in it. I haven't asked the commission for any change yet. I should prefer to wait a year or two before giving any definite opinion.

In reply to Judge Dillon's question Gould said that the acquisition of the Denver & South Park road was a politic action on the part of the Union Pacific, and brought him no great personal profit. Kansas Pacific stock jumped up rapidly as it leaked out that I was buying largely. I did it to protect my interest in Union Pacific and furnish a southern outlet and to affect the market. As soon as the new roads pro rated we turned the traffic over the Southern road and made money for the Union Pacific. I made money by the transaction, of course.

NOTHING TO CONCEAL.

Gould continued: I want to explain to the commission my motives in making these large purchases. I have nothing to conceal. At present I have no interest in the Union Pacific. While I was connected with it the company built several branch lines to act as feeders. No individual made any profit out of the building of these roads, the company building them at actual cost. As regards the Central Branch, the Kansas Central and the St. Joe & Western roads, I am willing to take them off the Union Pacific's hands at the price it paid for them. At the time of the consolidation of the Kansas Pacific it was a more valuable property than the Union Pacific. It was not put into the consolidation at too high a value. The security of the government was increased by the consolidation, and I cannot conceive how the consolidation was in any way injurious to the government's interests. One management was needed, and paralleling and consequent crippling of the Union Pacific were prevented.

WHY HE RETIRED

In reply to ex-Gov. Pattison's question as to why he retired from the management of the Union Pacific, Gould answered: I made up my mind that it would be better to have a large number interested in the road than to have people say Jay Gould owns it. I was partially actuated by the undesirability of having the government for a partner. When the road was in the rut it could have made any sort of bargain with the government; when it had been converted into a paying property, thus increasing the government's security, the government stepped in and attacked it. It is difficult to predict the future of the Union Pacific, but I think the government will have to make large concessions of both principal and interest to the road when the bonds become due, because the road can never pay them. The work of building the road was a fearfully expensive and dangerous job, and whereas eastern lines are now being built for from $1[illegible]000 to $13,000 a mile, this road paid as high as from $5 to $10 each for ties and $300 per ton for iron rails. The government has been sufficiently compensated for its loan to the Union Pacific by the benefit it has already received from some of the lands, etc. In my opinion the government should settle with the road on a fair basis, say by taking a bond for the principal sum, $[illegible]7,000,000, and cancel the claim for back interest. I would undertake to negotiate such a bond and secure its immediate cash payment. I say this as a man who has not a dollar's interest in the road. I never advanced money to pay Union Pacific dividends, although I did loan $150,000 to pay back interest on Kansas Pacific bonds once, on condition of a reduction of interest from 7 per cent to 6 per cent. In return for this money I received consolidated stock.

Amos H. Calef was recalled and produced the journal of the trustees of the Kansas Pacific consolidated mortgage, which showed a few transactions on exchange when the pool and not the mortgage rates controlled.

Anderson asked Gould if he could explain why the trustees' books show that $3,386,763 of securities were exchanged at pool rates when he stated yesterday that they were exchanged at the mortgage commutation rate.

Witness could not, because he understood that the members of the pool were not preferred. The transactions in which he was interested were made with the Union Pacific, they securing bonds and paying to Gould through the medium of treasurer Hall.

With the conclusion of Gould's testimony the taking of evidence in this city for the present closed. The commission go to Boston next Saturday night and will open an investigation there Monday noon. Governor Ames and F. Gordon Dexter are among those to be examined there. The commission will probably go to Omaha about July 1st.

A BLOW AT TRADES UNIONISM

Employes will be Required to Sign a Card of Principles.

CHICAGO, May 19.—A bold plan of campaign to settle the great building trades lockout by July 1 and strike a memorable blow at trades unionism was set on foot this afternoon. At a conference of delegates from every building interest in Chicago, with representatives present from the Illinois Architects' Association, the Chicago real estate board and kindred bodies, the members of which hire altogether probably 50,000 workmen, resolutions were unanimously adopted that from this time forth signature of the following card of principles by the employe will be made a universal condition of employment by all the building interests of Chicago:

I recognize the right of every man to decide for himself, without dictation or interference, when he shall work or cease to work, where he shall work, for whom he shall work, how many hours he shall work and for what wages he shall work. I recognize the absolute right of the employer to decide for himself, without interference from any source, whom he shall employ or shall cease to employ, to regulate and manage his business with perfect independence and freedom, provided only that he deal lawfully, justly and honorably with all men. I recognize the right of every father to [illegible] his [illegible] to learn any lawful trade as on a plane [illegible] of reading, writing or any other branch of learning, and that it should be [illegible] only by the law of the land. I hereby [illegible] relations and intercourse with my employer and fellow workmen to maintain and [illegible] these principles.

[illegible] the adoption of this [illegible] card of principles be presented [illegible] the employers with the [illegible] as follows:

I hereby [illegible] and live up to [illegible] my business [illegible] maintenance and protection [illegible] workmen [illegible] this signature of the card.

It was [illegible] this meant the discharge of every [illegible] who did not sign this card. Numerous [illegible] were raised by contractors [illegible] getting along [illegible] with their men and expect no trouble. [illegible] the constitution [illegible] that the country [illegible] by labor unions. After [illegible] it was resolved that [illegible] should be voted upon [illegible] its ratification. The [illegible] was thereupon adopted unanimously.

Necessary committees were appointed, and an assessment of 5 cents per member to meet expenses was levied.

THE CLAN NA GAEL ROW

The Society Disrupted and Enmity and Strife Prevail

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Mail and Express says: The Clan-na-Gael society, which numbers among its members two United States senators, the governors of several states, mayors by the dozen, as well as congressmen of national importance, is completely disrupted, and the fight among classes has become so bitter that certain members have been charged with selling the secrets of the order to the British government, which has been the means of supplying information to the London Times.

The Clan-na-Gael society was formed in the United States after the Aberline revolution in Ireland during the spring of 18[illegible]. A camp was organized in every city of the United States and every town of consequence. Brooklyn has nearly a dozen camps, with members [illegible] as seven and eight hundred. New York has more. Philadelphia follows next, then Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburg, Troy, Buffalo, Albany, San Francisco, New Haven, Boston, Lowell, Providence, Scranton and Hoosick Falls. Powderly was one of the chiefs when mayor of Scranton. The society is oath bound, and the object is to free Ireland.

CHARGES OF THEFT

To-day the society is not only split in halves, but one of the members, said to reside in New Haven, is charged with appropriating $40,000 from revolutionary funds, and other members of the supreme board are taxed with living on assessments drawn from the members. Open warfare has been instituted between the leaders, and the camps are divided into almost equal factions, the seceders taking with them the name of Clan na Gael, the camps remaining in the original order adopting another name.

Patrick Egan of Lincoln, Neb., Alexander Sullivan of Chicago, Col. Michael Boland of Louisville and Reynolds of New Haven form the leaders of the original faction, while John Devoy, Wm. D. Wallace and Lawyer Goff of Broadway are leading men in the new Clan na Gael.

The cause of the split, which occurred several months ago, was directly brought about by an order from the executive to the various camps demanding that 6 per cent of all moneys in the treasury of each camp be immediately forwarded to the unknown headquarters of the organization. For years there has been discontent among the camps, and members wondered where the money was going that they contributed. According to the constitution they were not allowed to ask, and members are only supposed to know the local officers.

BRITISH SPIES

Before the demand came for [illegible]0 per cent of the funds of all the camps of this country, Alexander Sullivan and Patrick Egan secured the expulsion of John Devoy and his followers. Open charges of robbery were then made, and it was alleged that British spies had gained a foothold in the order. The result was a majority of the camps refused to turn over [illegible]0 per cent of their receipts to the treasurer. Some of these camps were promptly expelled, and others did not wait for expulsion, but, disregarding the oaths, withdrew from the order. A majority were against the assessment and withdrew from the organization, taking with them the name Clan na Gael.

The new Clan-na-Gael proposes to drive Alexander Sullivan, Patrick Egan and their followers out of all the Irish societies. They will be placed upon the black list. They refuse to give the old camp any account of moneys expended, claiming it is a secret matter. Charges of fraud are made affecting in one case a man holding public office in Brooklyn and another of great prominence in Boston. Rev. Dr. Betts, a leading Protestant clergyman of the West, until recently located at St. Louis, is leader of one of the factions. He is bitterly denounced by some persons in New York who claim to know where London gets its information.

DE MORES ARRESTED

Charged with Frauds and Sued for Twenty Thousand Dollars

NEW YORK, May 19.—Antoine Mohon de Villambrosa, Marquis de Mores, well known in connection with the National Consumers' Meat Company, and as a big cattle ranch proprietor in Montana, was arrested to-day on complaint of Samuel Grimshaw, who sues to recover $20,000, charging the marquis with frauds. He was taken before Judge Donohue of the supreme court and released on $25,000 bail.

The complaint alleges that the marquis has sold his property and intended to leave the state. Grimshaw states that in February last he met the marquis, who was then about to establish a meat company. The marquis represented that he was interested in several meat concerns, that he was wealthy and possessed in his own right property worth $1[illegible]0,000, that he was backed up by a syndicate of millionaires, Wall street men and some Frenchmen, who could furnish him $[illegible]500,000 cash capital if needed; that he controlled M. De Mores & Co., in which he owned shares valued at $10,000. It was also stated that the marquis had invested $[illegible]0,000 in the Western Dressed Beef Company, and that he had real estate, ranches and cattle in Montana.

Grimshaw claims that upon these representations he was induced to enter into an agreement by which it was provided that he was to buy out the retail butchers of this city, giving them stock in the National Meat Company in return. The marquis was to pay him $100 for each daily output of one hundred beeves and to give him two hundred shares in the firm of De Mores & Co. when he should secure a daily output of 500 beeves. Grimshaw was to be made manager for the Eastern district, including New York and New Jersey, for the National Consumers' Meat Company, and be entitled to the disposition of five seats in the board of directors. The agreement also provides that if the arrangement could not be carried out in six months Grimshaw was to resign his interest in De Mores & Co.

Another agreement was made last March first, by which Grimshaw was to purchase the retail butcher shops at a cost not to exceed $50,000, their value to be determined by appraisement. Payment was to be made in stock of the National Consumers' Meat Company.

Grimshaw claims that he kept his part of the contract, and that besides breaking his part of the contract De Mores made false representation. Of the $20,000 damages he claims $[illegible]00 are for expenses incurred, $[illegible]000 for services, about $2,200 for liabilities incurred in making contracts, and $10,000 for loss of business incurred by accepting the marquis's proposition.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Miss Leslie of the Kate Castleton Company Instantly Killed.

DENVER, May 19.—The sleeper on the D. & R. G. Salt Lake express was derailed near Salida at 5 o'clock this morning. Grace Leslie, leading lady of Kate Castleton's troupe, was instantly killed. Dr. George Cox received a severe scalp wound, and Pullman Conductor Aubrey was hurt on the head and hip. The wounded were taken to the company's hospital at Salida. The sleeper was badly demolished.

The company played at Pueblo last night, and after the performance boarded the midnight train for Leadville, where they were billed to play this evening. When eighteen miles west of Salida the sleeping car, which was filled with members of the troupe, suddenly and without any apparent cause left the track and rolled down an embankment of several feet among the rocks. The car was badly wrecked and the passengers thrown in every direction, Miss Leslie with two or three others being hurled through the broken side of the car or the windows upon the rocks. As soon as the passengers recovered their surprise from the shock they began an investigation as to who were injured. Miss Leslie was found lying upon the ground dead, her spinal column broken and a wound on her head. No one other than those mentioned was injured. The Castleton Company cancelled the Leadville engagement and returned to Denver this evening. The body of Miss Leslie will be embalmed and forwarded to friends in Brooklyn.

O'BRIEN'S MOVEMENTS

He is Given a Rousing Reception at Ottawa [illegible]

TORONTO, Ont., May 19.—[illegible] William O'Brien [illegible] Mr. Devlin [illegible] for Ottawa. [illegible] cheers.

OTTAWA, May 19.—[illegible] along the route crowds [illegible] at the [illegible] that dared [illegible] Irishman who fears nothing [illegible] greeted him with cheers intermingled with occasional groans. A committee of citizens and Irish leaders from Ottawa met the train at Moberly. [illegible] The deputation was composed of prominent gentlemen, and as the train slowed up at Grand Union it was seen that an immense crowd was assembled. The crowd set up a tremendous cheering as soon as O'Brien stepped on the platform, and this enthusiasm was manifested again and again.

On leaving the station the party were driven to the Russell house. When O'Brien was entering the rotunda of the hotel some one in the surging throng tried to cheer for the Queen and to repeat the scene generally that was witnessed at the Queen's park meeting in Toronto, but storms of cheers for O'Brien and groans for Lansdowne were above everything else.

THE MEETING

In the Royal roller rink later on [illegible]000 persons were packed. Large pictures of Gladstone and Parnell were placed in front of the platform, with the American and Canadian flags, and the motto in large green letters, "God save Ireland." In one corner of the building was massed a large body of students from Ottawa, about 200 in number, mostly Americans, who shouted in chorus "O'Brien" amid thunders of applause. The platform was occupied by large numbers of priests, members of parliament and prominent citizens.

As Mr. O'Brien stepped upon the platform the vast audience arose as one man and cheered enthusiastically. Not another man could get into the hall. The whole demonstration was plainly an answer to the Toronto attack. Everybody was talking of annexation, and Richard Nagle, one of the most prominent citizens, said: "We want annexation. We don't want any more pauper stricken landlords coming over here to disgrace and shame themselves."

An address of welcome was read by Prof. H. J. Frawley of Ottawa. Then followed the reading by Secretary J. D. Gray of two telegrams, which set the audience frantic. Men cheered and yelled until they could do it no longer.

O'BRIEN'S SPEECH

J. L. Devlin, president of St. Patrick's Association, then introduced Mr. O'Brien, who spoke as follows: I am proud to learn that I am, I believe, the first representative of the Irish people who has ever set foot in this capital of the Canadian dominion, and standing here at the seat and center of Canadian independence, I cannot help thinking that if, like you, we had a parliament of our own on College Green it would not be necessary for us to travel across the world to worry you with the sorrows and sufferings of our people, and to subject you to so crucial a test of the sincerity of your sympathy with Ireland. [Applause.] Our visit here is a matter of life and death for the hundred unhappy human beings whom your governor general has doomed to eviction and destruction. O'Brien proceeded at length in this strain, and in the most caustic manner, to denounce those who attacked him and his friends, and then in turn to arraign Lord Lansdowne as morally responsible for their acts. It was after 11 o'clock when O'Brien and his friends reached the Russell House, and they sat down to a banquet with two hundred others.

REVIEW OF THE TORONTO PRESS

TORONTO, Ont., May 19.—The Globe, referring to yesterday's disturbance, says: The ruffians of yesterday doubtless expected to overawe the eloquence and courage of O'Brien, and this they vainly attempted. They have thrown over to him a volume of sympathy which he could not have otherwise obtained. He stands now identified with the cause of free speech in Canada, freedom to walk the streets and freedom to express his opinion, and these common rights must be vindicated at any necessary trouble and cost. The comments of the other papers are of the same tenor.

ANOTHER TOWN DON'T WANT O'BRIEN

HAMILTON, Ont., May 19.—Wm. O'Brien is to lecture here on Monday night under the auspices of the local branch of the Irish National League. It is proposed to call a public meeting for Saturday evening to protest against Mr. O'Brien's coming here to continue his attack on Lord Lansdowne.

ENGLAND.

IN THE COMMONS

LONDON, May 19.—In the commons Healy raised a discussion regarding the government's conduct in the latter meetings in Ulster. Balfour disputed Healy's arguments and contended that Earl Spencer, when lord lieutenant of Ireland, adopted a course simpler than that pursued by the present government. W. H. Smith proposed cloture, carried 2[illegible]6 to 95.

THE DONCASTER RACES

LONDON, May 19.—Opening day of the Doncaster spring meeting: Hopeful stakes, two-year-olds, five furlongs, won by Vineyard's colt Hautboy by four lengths; same owner's filly Fallow Chat second; Roseborne's colt Creeg third. There were eleven starters.

RUSSIA

AN IMPERIAL CEREMONY

ST. PETERSBURG, May 19.—The czarowitch was last evening installed with great ceremony at Novo Tcherkask as hetman of the Cossacks. The decree of appointment was publicly read to the Cossack soldiers. The czar thanked the Cossacks for the faithful services and for the cordial reception they had extended to him and his family. He then handed the hetman's baton to the czarowitch, the presentation being attended with great pomp and ceremony, which included a superb exhibition of imperial regalia and jewels. After this ceremony the czar reviewed the Cossack regiment and a battery of young military pupils of two regiments of [illegible] boys. Talmuck horsemen then gave an exhibition of a war game for the entertainment of the imperial visitors, and presented the czarowitch with a cream colored horse. The day's ceremonies and exhibitions were followed in the evening by a grand display of fireworks and a grand jubilant ball.

CARNEGIE AROUSES A HORNET'S NEST

NEW YORK, May 19.—Andrew Carnegie, the Pittsburg iron millionaire, has brought a hornet's nest of censure about his ears by his letter refusing to assist in the queen's jubilee celebration here because of his staunch republicanism. Dr. J. A. Irwin of Cambridge, England, who sent the invitation to Carnegie, to-day published a card in which he said: Carnegie was born on the glorious soil of Scotland, whose sons have ever carried the banner of freedom, whether under chiefs or under kings. Mr. Carnegie's early life was doubtless characterized by early freedom—freedom from hoes and stockings, for instance, and other social incumbrances, which in his later years accumulated wealth and newly acquired domestic responsibilities have forced upon him. But do what he will, Mr. Carnegie cannot be a Cæsar. Those who knew him best may feel that he has escaped the other alternative. Naturally too a person who has entertained and lionized a bogus lord, and having discovered the error of his way and been rubbed by a real one, is liable to undergo a pretty severe anti monarchical reaction. I will tell Mr. Carnegie that most of us who are heart and soul in the celebration of the queen's jubilee are just as staunch republicans as he is.

LABOR PARTY EARLY IN THE FIELD

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Commercial Advertiser this afternoon publishes the following: It is already stated on very good authority that the Henry George labor party has already begun to prepare for the fall campaign. District leaders, with their assistants, are making a house to house canvass in the tenement house districts, and are said to be largely recruiting their ranks from lukewarm democrats. It has been intimated that the object of the whole affair is to swell the labor vote in the approaching election to such an extent that George could then be in a position to make a profitable deal with Blaine in the presidential election of 1888. George this morning said: You can authoritatively deny that there is any deal or agreement, either past, pending, or to be made in the future, between Blaine and myself. I am opposed to Blaine. He represents all I have been fighting against for years in monopoly and the worst form of capitalistic power.

Will there be a labor presidential candidate in 1888?

It is strongly probable that there will, answered George.

HARD TIMES FOR HOP GROWERS

CHICAGO, May 19.—A Times Utica, Pa., special of the 18th says: A gloomy feeling pervades the hop districts of Central New York. Two years ago growers hardly realized enough from their hops to pay the cost of raising. Those who profited materially were they who were able to hold their product for better prices, which came a year later. Last year the crop was almost a total failure. Two years misfortune brought distress to many and failure to more than a few. A third year's disaster means ruin to a still greater number, and the uniform report by hop farmers is that a third bad year is before them.

PREPARING TO GAMBLE IN SILVER.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A movement to have silver dealt in on the floor of the stock exchange has progressed so far that orders have been given to print certificates for 500 and 1000 ounces silver, to be registered with and guaranteed by the Western National bank, and an application will be made by F. K. Willard & Co. at the next meeting of the committee of the stock exchange to have the certificates listed. The scheme contemplates the selection of a safe deposit company which shall issue certificates on the deposit of any amount of silver, the company charging a moderate storage rate.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1887.

AN INJUDICIOUS MISSION.

Editor O'Brien's further experience in Canada must convince the friends of Irish home rule that his mission is an injudicious one. Public sentiment in Canada, as elsewhere, when calm and considerate, cannot withhold assent from the principle of home rule for Ireland, but when passion is aroused the enemies of the cause become bold, unreasonable and aggressive. This has actually happened in Canada. There is not as opposition now to a cause or a principle that formerly excited little or no antagonism in Canada. In fact, it was only a little while ago that a resolution against coercion and in favor of home rule for Ireland was adopted by the dominion parliament. By O'Brien's appearance this spirit of tolerance, if it could not be called real sympathy, for the cause of liberal government in Ireland has been converted into the most bitter animosity against it. We are told that the incident seems to have changed the whole face of Canadian politics, and very likely will have an important bearing on the future of politics throughout the dominion. Great numbers who really think that Ireland ought to have local self-government will say that the issue is not to be decided in Canada, and will blame the home rule party for precipitating such a disturbance upon the Canadian people. From this it is but a step to actual hostility to the cause itself. It seems to be fully demonstrated therefore that O'Brien's mission was very injudiciously undertaken, and the sequel appears to justify the foresight of Gladstone, Parnell and others, who are said to have declined to advise it. When O Brien claims as an effect that the furious intolerance of the mob of Canada has given the world new proofs of the brutality of the system against which he protests, it may be answered that such proofs were not needed. The world knew all this before. The Chicago Tribune says: "The visit is ill-timed and ill-advised. O'Brien does not understand the political and social situation in Canada, or he never would have undertaken this self-imposed task." Multitudes who will say that Ireland ought to have justice, yet "do not want this country unnecessarily made the controversial ground for the settlement of Irish landlord-tenant troubles."

THE WHITEBOY ACTS.

Our dispatches yesterday announced that the debate upon the Irish crimes bill has reached that clause which proposes "to extend summary jurisdiction to conspiracy, boycotting, resistance to eviction, and offenses designated in the Whiteboy acts."

The "Whiteboy acts" were passed in the last century to put down a class of outlaws, corresponding in their disguises and their night raids to what we call "ku-klux" at the South, and identical in the character of their outrages with the Irish "moonlighters" of to-day. They wore a white shirt or smock over their ordinary dress, so as to be easily distinguished by each other at night, and hence their name "Whiteboys." Further to disguise themselves these outlaws blackened their faces. The outrages committed by them were houghing cattle, tarring and feathering, mobbing odious landlords, etc.

As early as 1741 Lord Chesterfield, then viceroy of Ireland, wrote that "if the soldiers had shot more landlords and fewer 'whiteboys' they would have acted more in accordance with justice to a wretched people driven to madness, murder and other crimes by the horrible cruelties inflicted upon them." This language from this aristocratic Englishman, then governor of Ireland, clearly places upon the government the responsibility for the existence of these "whiteboys," who were an ignorant peasantry retaliating upon their oppressors, answering violence with violence and legal murder and robbery through courts with illegal murder and agrarian outrages of all sorts.

By the terms of the whiteboy act of 1775, to which the present coercion bill refers, any person who, armed with any offensive weapons or disguised or "wearing any particular badge, dress or uniform not usually worn by him, or assuming any particular name or denomination not usually assumed by his majesty's subjects, shall rise, assemble or appear by day or night to the terror of his majesty's subjects," was guilty of a misdemeanor and was to be hanged. This clause was subsequently repealed, but the penalty of hanging still remains for the sending of threatening letters, for attempting to rescue a prisoner committed on a capital charge. Of course the penalty is not inflicted, but it stands to-day on the statutes.

Another of these "Whiteboy" acts, which is also made part of the coercion bill, makes death the penalty for unlawful meeting and for printing any document tending to incite a riot. Under the Whiteboy code "sending a threatening letter, compelling another man to leave his farm, habitation or lawful employment, maliciously causing any door to be opened by threats or menaces, rescuing a prisoner, and imposing an unlawful oath, are all criminal offenses," and if the coercion bill passes they may all be passed upon by courts of summary jurisdiction, that is, may be taken from the jurisdiction of the ordinary courts of the land and tried by magistrates that are completely under the control of the government at Dublin, that is, the accused will not get a jury trial, but a mere short, sharp shrift, like a drumhead courtmartial, before a bench of magistrates who are the mere official tools and appointees of the tory Dublin executive. There is no dispute as to the right of the government to punish such offenses, but in the darkest days of Southern "ku klux" outrages our government tried them by the federal courts before juries drawn from the state where the offenses were committed. That is, we did not play despot in the name of free government we did not wrench the whole ordinary machinery of justice from its moorings in order to punish wrong.

Another portion of this obsolete "Whiteboy" code of the 18th century, that is expressly included in the pending coercion bill, declares that "twelve persons meeting together and not dispersing on the proclamation of the magistrate, or not dispersing when the magistrate has been prevented from making such proclamation, are guilty of felony and may be sentenced to death." Of course under this act no purely political meetings of the home rule party could take place if a magistrate chose to proclaim the meeting and enforce the proclamation. Another provision of the Whiteboy acts included in the pending crimes bill can be invoked by the summary courts of procedure to gag the public press.

These laws are upon the statute book of Great Britain, but have been deemed as obsolete but if the coercion bill passes in its present form this "Whiteboy" code which is not dead but sleepeth, will be revived in all its original force by the magistrates who will constitute these so-called courts of summary jurisdiction.

The house of commons has already passed a provision of the coercion bill that witnesses shall be compelled to give evidence such as may criminate themselves and be used in prosecution against them. Of this bill Morley says: "It practically suspends trial by jury forever." Gladstone says of it "It makes our blood run cold, it stimulates to the uttermost international hatred. For Ireland this new coercion is a question of suffering for England it is a question of shame and dishonor. It is poison it must be presented to the lips of Ireland by other hands than mine. It is a bill aimed at a nation, it is not intended to suppress crimes known to the law, but it is a bill that makes things crimes that never were crimes." Will any American say that the great Englishman exaggerates the hideousness of this Irish crimes bill?

The Confederate generals and colonels don't take much stock in the New South. Lieut.-Gen. D. H. The members [illegible] addition to their duties as representatives [illegible] the examination of Portland and [illegible]. They will carry with them the germ that will produce better feeling between city and country. So strong was their attachment for the metropolis that a grand master was selected from among its citizens and Portland was selected as the place for holding the next session of the grand lodge.

Ex Grand Master Alexander, in his report for the year, says:

And now in conclusion, my dear brothers let me admonish you, that though the year has been prosperous and the outlook is bright, not to settle quietly down and consider that your work is accomplished, that there is nothing further to be done. In the great field of human endeavor there must be either progression or retrogression. There is no such thing as standing still. Life is, indeed like a mighty river and unless we are pulling up we are drifting down. In the natural order of things we have a place to fill, a duty to perform. If you would exemplify the teachings of our order you must be progressive, virtuous, true.

GOOD ADVICE TO CARPENTERS.

W. J. Montgomery, of Ogdensburg, New York writes to his brothers of the square and compass: My advice to all carpenters is to wear a couple of ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS on the small of the back. I find that they give me double power and energy to accomplish my work as well as proving shields against colds and pulmonary difficulties. These Plasters appear to fill the body with nervous energy and power, and they seem to double my natural strength. I am a carpenter by trade and know how often my brother workmen and I suffer from imprudently throwing our coats off and going to work in a cold shop. We forget how little protection the back part of the vest affords to the lungs. By placing an ALLCOCK'S PLASTER under each shoulder blade all trouble of this kind will be avoided, as I know by experience. If you do get caught with a cold or a bad cough or rheumatic pains an ALLCOCK'S PLASTER gives instant relief.

HOUSEHOLD REFRIGERATORS.

The market is glutted with many kinds of inferior household Refrigerators. None have ever been tested, and little or nothing is known of their capability of fulfilling the necessary requirements of a good and reliable food preservative. They are generally made up in a showy manner, and always with one distinct object in view, cheapness. A good refrigerator must be built on thoroughly scientific principles. It must be so constructed as to give a revolving motion to the air within. The cold air, being heavy, must fall through openings scientifically located in the ice chamber, so as to displace and force the warm air through other openings, equally scientifically located, on a revolving circuit back again into the ice chamber.

An examination of the bulk of refrigerators now offered for sale in this city will disclose the fact that such scientific construction is lacking in all save alone the TRIED and WELL ESTABLISHED "JEWETT." The Jewett is the only refrigerator built on strictly correct principles as an ice and food preservative, and while they cost a great deal more to produce than any other known make, yet, in order to drive inferior ones out of the market, orders have been received by their agents, Messrs. H. ACKERMAN & CO., to reduce the prices BELOW that of corresponding sizes of the inferior make. There can be no reason now for anybody to be MISLED. At a less price than a commonly constructed article, you can purchase a Refrigerator built on correct principles, and by the renowned and long established house of Jewett & Son, Buffalo, N. Y.

This evening at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association Mr C M Idleman will give a lecture entitled Know Your Legal Right ' The lecture is of especial importance to young men starting in life, and they should not fail to hear it.

The Sellwood & Vancouver Railroad Company is ready to give large bonds to the East Portland council that they will build the road at once if the franchise is granted to the company The road will certainly be built, and the value of Sellwood property will double thereby.

Constable Elmer Sprague arrived here Wednesday with Dr James McPherson, accused of indecent assault on Jennie Fuller McPherson characterizes his arrest as an outrage. He was released on bonds and demanded a jury trial which was set for 10 o'clock this morning, Johnson McCown & Idleman are McPherson's attorneys

Something new in the way of special advertising here has been adopted with signal success by Meier & Frank. This is in the offering of some well known and reliable line on a special day offered at half regular value. These offerings are very readily taken advantage of by the purchasing public. The great loss sustained is more than made up on other days by the greatly increased business gained from those who have previously sought these special offers. Their offer for Saturday (to-morrow) is the well known Standard white unlaundried shirts at a price that will cause many to lay in a supply for future use. See second page

PERSONAL.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE ARION CONCERT —For charity s sweet sake a very large audience assembled at the New Market theater last evening at the benefit concert to the Nanaimo relief fund, given under the auspices of the Arion society The several numbers were well executed, especially the musical poem ' Bergmannsgruss,' descriptive of the miner s life The solo portions were well rendered by Miss Bonn Mrs Child and Messrs. P Wessinger and G Castendick, while the declamatory reading by B Solis Cohen was admirably done Mrs J A. Child's vocal solo, "Mizpah," and Mrs. W. A. Wetzell s song, "Emilie Waltz," were both sung in good style, and elicited hearty applause. The male choruses by the Arion society, 'Waldandacht ' and Mendelssohn's "March," seemed to give great satisfaction, and the society is to be congratulated upon the possession of some good vocal material. No small features of the entertainment were the numbers given by the Orchestral Union, the "Hungarian Dances," Nos 5 and 6, being especially well executed Mr F M Gilmore sang 'The Miner" (Marti) in excellent style and the cornet duett by Messrs Coomer and Timm exhibited a high degree of technique Altogether the concert was both a musical and a financial success

OLD VOLUNTEER FIREMEN —A meeting of the Volunteer Firemen's Association was held last evening at the police court chambers A number of bills were ordered paid and general routine business transacted Thirty-eight new members were elected and six applications for membership referred to a committee to be reported on at the next meeting It was reported that the benefit at New Market theater had netted the association $251 also that the receipts of the evening were $68 5 John B Haley donated $25 to the society, and was elected an honorary member After some little debate it was voted to purchase a hand engine Three's old Jeffery engine being suggested A committee was appointed to attend to the matter and report as to the best engine they could procure. The association now numbers some 200 members.

FAST STEAMBOATING —Last night the steamer Multnomah made a trip from Washougal to Portland in one hour and fifty-eight minutes. She left Washougal at 6 o'clock, made stops at La Camas, Fisher's, Vancouver and St. Johns, which occupied thirteen minutes, and arrived here at 7.58. The run from Vancouver was made in fifty nine minutes, which is the fastest on record between the two points She carried 125 pounds of steam and ran with the cut-off as far as Vancouver From there to St. Johns she came open, and from St. Johns to Portland with the cut-off, carrying eighty pounds of steam The run from Vancouver to the mouth of the Willamette, six miles, was made in sixteen minutes There was about a three-mile current with the boat in the Columbia and a two mile current against her in the Willamette

TWELVE YEARS FOR MANSLAUGHTER.—Sing High, convicted in the state circuit court at St. Helens of a crime against nature, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary Yesterday Thomas Sullivan was tried and convicted of manslaughter in stabbing Merrill Blanchard to death last Christmas at Rainier, and was sentenced to a term of twelve years in the penitentiary. Sing High and Sullivan are at present confined in the Multnomah county jail. The Chinaman will be taken to Salem to-day and Sullivan on next Monday Frank Berico, who bit Wallace's ear off at Wallace's island, and who got a year, was taken up yesterday Sullivan killed Blanchard on account of a beating he received at Blanchard s hands the day previous Sullivan at the time was on a drunken spree He seems satisfied at getting off as easy as he did

FINED FOR ASSAULT —A jury in Justice Tuttle's court yesterday were engaged in the trial of James Caldwell for assault and battery on George Smith, a poll tax collector. During the trial Caldwell became mad—very mad—at some reference made to him by Deputy District Attorney Simon, and jumped up as if he meant fight. Mr Simon told him to sit down and shut up and he did as directed Caldwell was found guilty by the jury of simple assault and fined $10, which he paid. The trouble was brought about by Caldwell and others resisting Smith from collecting poll tax from DeLay's Chinamen The defendant and his friends left the courtroom threatening Smith s arrest in Albina

MULTNOMAH FALLS EXCURSION TO MORROW —The Hall street M. E church excursion to Multnomah falls to morrow with the R R Thompson leaves Ash street wharf at 7 45 A M, and returning, arrives at 7 P M The fare is only fifty cents for the round trip of 100 miles on one of the floating palaces of the Columbia, to see the greatest water fall of the Northwest. Just now Multnomah falls are at their best. Everybody that can get away should go Everybody citizens and strangers and tourists, are cordially invited Lunch on board for all who wish

ANNOYED BY SMOKE —John Carder who lives on Marquam s hill had a trial before Justice Bushwiler yesterday for defacing a building of Henry Crozier, a neighbor by kicking down a stove pipe Carder claimed the smoke from the pipe entered his kitchen and smoked him out. When Crozier objected to his knocking down the stove pipe Carder threatened to clean out the whole Crozier outfit. For making such a threat Carder is to be tried to-day Justice Bushwiler will then decide both cases

FOR ENGLAND —Col. F J Parker, editor of the Walla Walla Statesman, leaves about the 1st of June for England. He will revisit his birthplace at Somerset which he left twenty five years ago with the expressed intention of returning in four years in possession of a fortune. He will be absent from three to six months, and promises that he will not neglect to mention the resources of this country whenever opportunity offers

THROWN OUT OF COURT.—Yesterday in the police court Joseph DeMartini was tried on a charge of assault and battery on his wife, and examined for threatening to kill her He was acquitted on both charges. The evidence was of a nasty character principally unfit for publication. In Justice Bushwiler s court the charge of larceny against Mrs DeMartini was dismissed, on motion of the deputy district attorney

REPORTED KILLING —The Baker City Democrat of the 18th has the following It is currently reported that Wm Snider was shot and killed by his wife on Saturday last at their home on the Payette Many of our citizens will recollect this man Snider as he spent part of last summer here He was a Samson in strength and a giant in size, standing six feet six inches in hight.

REMOVED —Mrs J T Hayne has removed her studio to Marquam's block, Sixth street, between Morrison and Alder, her present rooms being too small to accommodate her classes who are painting flowers from nature Mrs. Hayne s pupils will find her at the above address hereafter

EXCURSION TO LATOURELLE FALLS —The excursion to Latourelle falls given by Taylor street M E church and Sunday school will take place Saturday Steamer Lurline will leave foot of Morrison street at 8 A M Tickets, 50 cents and 25 cents

MEETING POSTPONED —The quarterly conference of Taylor street church is postponed to Monday the 23d inst at 7 30 P M

PRINDLE ACQUITTED —The case of Harry Prindle, the swindler, went to the jury late yesterday afternoon, and at 10 o clock last night they returned a verdict of acquittal Two other indictments against him will be dismissed to-day and he will go free. That is his good luck and it has followed him ever since he began his career as a swindler in Vermont about fifteen years ago. A man of good family, well educated, of good address, with excellent business training the ability to earn a fine income in a legitimate way, married to a splendid woman and having several interesting children, he deliberately chose to leave paths of rectitude and swindle every man or corporation whose confidence he could gain, and squander the ill gotten money in vice In one way or another he has managed to evade the penalty of the law, and his experience on the coast was no exception to the rule

FRUIT FROM CALIFORNIA —Last night s steamer from California arrived here in time to discharge fruit and get it to commission houses before closing hours Receipts included a large lot of strawberries, a ton or two of cherries, and a small sprinkling of oranges and bananas. The rush of retail dealers to the commission houses on Front, between Washington and Alder about 5 45 P M made it look to a reporter as if half a dozen dog fights were in progress all a going at the same time Not the least anxious among the purchasers were fifty or more Chinese peddlers Part of the strawberries were mildewed, yet found ready sale at 90 cents a box Before 6 o clock the berries had all been disposed of. The retail price continues firm at 25 cents a pound Strawberries from the east side ought to be in market by the last of next week.

WANTS TO ILLUMINATE MOUNT HOOD —Joseph A Wilson of Hood River, writes to a friend in this city that he would like to undertake to illuminate Mount Hood on the evening of the Fourth of July under the auspices of the Portland celebration committee He is willing to make the attempt, provided the committee furnishes the material If he fails, he wants nothing If he succeeds, he wants good pay Mr. Wilson is a mountain climber from "way back," and knows what he is about. His best plan would be to address a letter to the committee stating what materials he would need and what sum he would demand for his services, conditioned upon success If the finances permit, no doubt the committee would view with favor a reasonable proposition.

THE NARROW GAUGE ROAD.

BIDS OPENED YESTERDAY FOR GRADING THE LINE INTO PORTLAND.

Yesterday there were opened at the office of Mr. Hawgood, chief engineer of the Portland & Willamette Valley Railroad Company, bids for grading the line from Elk Rock, the present northern terminus, to the city levee The bidders were Bays & Jeffery the Oregon Paving and Contract Company and W. M Watson & Company Officers of the company were very reticent on the subject, and declined to give any information further than above stated Presumably the matter must be referred to the Southern Pacific before final action can be taken.

From one of the contractors it was learned that the work includes the big cut at Elk Rock and that the contract requires that the grading be finished by August 1 He thinks that the contract will be let to-day and stated that he had good reasons for this belief Bids for trestle work had not yet been invited but they will probably follow in a few days The specifications called for a grade for a narrow gauge line but provision was made in the contract for widening the grade during the progress of the work at the option of the company

A report obtained circulation this week that traffic agreement between the Oregonian Railway Company and the Portland & Willamette Valley Company had been broken off There is no truth in it Mr Scott receiver of the former and Mr Reid president of the latter company both stating positively that the arrangements for through traffic are now exactly as they were before the Southern Pacific bought a controlling interest in the P & W V Company As nearly all the business of the P & W V Company originates on the Oregonian lines there is little probability that existing friendly relations will be disturbed.

PARADISE SPRING FARM

WHAT AN ' OREGONIAN ' REPORTER LEARNED IN AN INTERVIEW ON SATURDAY

'Can you afford at the price asked per lot in your tract to erect and give away six hard finished houses as you advertise ' asked an OREGONIAN reporter as he entered the office of Hennelly Flynn & Co last Saturday afternoon

Yes we can replied Mr Flynn, as he invited the inquiring pencil pusher to take a chair and further more we propose to do it We awarded the contract yesterday afternoon to Mr G H Wiser for the erection of six houses on the place at a stipulated cost of $1140 each and they are to be ready for occupancy by the 10th of July These houses are modern design ground floor cottages of the most approved style and will contain bay window parlors connected with sitting room by folding doors, also two large well lighted bed rooms bathroom dining room kitchen pantry closets hallways etc They are to be hard finished and painted throughout, and the last one will be ready for occupancy by the 10th day of July In addition to the above there are two very good houses now on the premises which will also be given away with the lots making eight houses in all or two more than we have advertised

Is the land level

Yes every foot of it is level and in actual cultivation with fruits and berries, and if it were not so we certainly would not furnish free carriages for its inspection We have 170 lots in the tract and we will agree to give $125 cash for the most undesirable lot in the whole number either before or after the drawing as the purchaser may elect

I thought you had 208 lots

We supposed we had that number but after a careful survey of the property under the supervision of D W Taylor we found after dedicating streets that we had but 170 so the purchaser instead of having six chances out of 208 of drawing a house with the lot as advertised will have eight chances out of 170

Then your profit in the matter will not be as large as you anticipated

No we do not expect to make a fortune out of the sale but we intend to keep faith with the public even if we do not make one dollar out of the investment Right in this connection we might say that a great many stories have been advanced by malicious moss backs who leer every thing that tends to leave them in the shade—where they belong—about the amount of money we make out of the enterprise And for their especial benefit as well as for the enlightenment of the public we will state that we have in this matter assumed a $31,000 risk to make $4000 and in doing so we have afforded men of moderate means a chance to acquire a home in a locality where it could never have been accomplished otherwise We have 25 acres in this Paradise Spring Farm tract for which we have paid $800 per acre or a sum total of $20 000 In addition to this we expend $6840 in the erection of six hard finished houses $1400 for advertising, $60 for attorneys fees $100 for surveys and maps and $200 for carriage hire which makes a total of $30 600 Out of the sale of 170 lots at $200 each we will realize the sum of $34 000 which affords us a profit of $23 per lot or $4000 more than our expenses and we wait ten months for our money without interest

"That appears to be a very candid statement.

Well that is the way we do business. We have nothing to conceal in the matter and we might add that if any of our competitors can do any better by the public we would like to have them do it. Some indirect insinuations have been made by wholly irresponsible curbstone real estate fakirs who don't own one foot of land to the effect that land can be purchased in that vicinity for less than $ 00 per acre and for the benefit we will state right here that if they or any of their friends have any land in the same locality either east or west of Paradise Spring Farm fronting on Mount Tabor avenue with advantages equal to ours we will take every foot of it at the same price

That certainly ought to settle all disputes as to the value of the land remarked the reporter as he prepared to take his departure

If you don't think it does just call on W S Ladd who owns 480 acres adjoining our property C M Wiberg who owns an $8000 residence across the street Mr Beck president of the Morrison Street Bridge Company whose home adjoins Paradise Spring Farm or in fact anyone owning property fronting on Mount Tabor avenue and if any bear purchaser has land in that vicinity for less than $500 an acre we will make it an object for you to ...

When is the award of houses to be made

On the ... evening of the ... of June at the New Market theater ... As some ... has been ... about ... I ... of ... the ... and every ... of taking ... at ... the ... in ... sold ... north ... for ... and ... on ... the ... property ... paid for

That ... the ... of ... remarked the reporter ... thought of investing ... his ...

Yes ... You take into consideration ... chances ... that ... the ... next ... years ... that the masses will be ... to seek homes on the east side of the river ... you will find ... a safe ... and we have no hesitancy in making ...

From the above statement it will be seen that our profit in the enterprise while comparatively small is of a collective rather than an individual nature coming as it does from the many rather than the few In other words by disposing of 170 lots in one body we are enabled through the collective profit arising therefrom to make it most the many which we or no one else could effect with the individual. We sell these lots at $200 each $100 of that sum to be paid at time of subscription and the balance in monthly installments of $15 each with interest. We give each purchaser a good and sufficient bond for a deed to the same and a warranting the title to be perfect and everything as represented or the money will be refunded on application at our office

As only a few of these lots remain unsold remittances will not be received after 1 ... from the interior except with the understanding that we reserve the right to reship at sender's expense

Parties in the interior desiring to invest in Paradise Spring Farm should notify us by mail or telegraph before sending money in order to save unnecessary expense. All those who have applied for lots in the above named tract will confer a favor by calling at once and adjusting us with their ... to avoid any misunderstanding about priority of applications

CARRIAGES leave our office every day (Sundays included) at one and three o clock for the free inspection of the property We ask no one to buy before satisfying themselves that Paradise Spring Farm addition is all that we claim for it

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

A Rejected Lover Kills a Young Woman and Commits Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO May 19—Philip Keyenberg a cabinet maker aged 26 shot and killed Mary Fessler aged 23 this afternoon and then shot and killed himself. Miss Fessler attended church this forenoon and from there went to visit a lady friend in Larkin Place near O Farrell street. Keyenberg who had followed her to church, a fact she was unaware of, also followed her to the house of her friend. As the door of the house was opened Keyenberg drew a revolver and fired two shots. The unsuspecting girl was struck in the back by the first bullet and in the face by the second. She fell and almost instantly expired. Keyenberg then turned the pistol to his forehead and blew his brains out. Miss Fessler had been engaged to marry Keyenberg but the engagement had been broken off and it was reported that she was to marry another. Jealousy caused by the above facts is believed to be the cause of the tragedy.

Talk about the Railroads—Potter Going to Alaska.

SEATTLE May 19—Hon Brayton Ives of Boston Mass one of the directors of the Northern Pacific railroad N C Thrall of St. Paul general passenger agent Paul Schulze of Portland general land agent, and Superintendent Buckley of Tacoma arrived in Seattle over the Puget Sound & Shore Line at 10 30 A M. The party came over from Tacoma in Mr. Ives's special car and were met by Gov Terry and taken over the city in carriages. This was Mr Ives first visit to Seattle and it is regretted that it could not have been prolonged. As usual, Mr Buckley is in a hurry to get away. There seems to be great fear on the part of some Northern Pacific officials that guests and others whom they accompany to Seattle shall remain long enough to form an intelligent idea of this city.

L. M. McGinnis Puget sound agent for the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company has appointed Mr Valentine Hull, of the Postal Telegraph, assistant freight and passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific railway in this city. The appointment is an excellent one and will give general satisfaction.

Prof E S Ingraham is organizing an excursion party of school teachers to visit Mount Rainier during the summer. He will take along an amateur photographic outfit for the purpose of securing views of the glaciers and other interesting points in the mountains.

Yesterday a force of seventy five men was set to work on the new reservoir of the Spring Hill Water Company on a high hill southeast of the city. Now that the weather has settled the men will be kept constantly employed until the immense reservoir is completed.

Harry Lichtwerks an employe on the Columbia & Puget Sound Railway was badly burned about the hands and face by a gas explosion in the furnace while firing one of the engines on the road a few days ago. His injuries are painful but not serious.

Mr Thomas J Potter the new vice-president of the Union Pacific, will be in Seattle on May [illegible] and will leave on that date for Alaska having engaged berths for himself and wife for Sitka on the Olympian.

FROM TACOMA.

Mineral Discoveries—A Missing Son—Tacoma's Prospects Etc

TACOMA May 19—Maj Sears mining expert and civil engineer [illegible] stated to a [illegible] reporter to-day that he had discovered in his recent trip up [illegible] the Cascade mountains a vein of [illegible] anthracite coal four feet in thickness located near the main line of the railroad. The major said he was surprised to find such quantities of iron, coal, limestone and marble as are located within ten miles of the main line of the Cascade branch and predicts that these great stores of mineral wealth solves the problem of Tacoma's future. "Tacoma is bound to become the Glasgow of the Pacific coast" said the major. "I have seen nothing in the country to compare with the chances and outlook which it has before it."

Mrs. Purslow arrived here alone the other day from Sioux City Iowa in search of her invalid son John W Purslow from whom she had had a complaining letter, dated at Alderton Pierce county. She says she can find no trace of her son and is in sore distress for anxiety over the whereabouts and condition of the missing one.

M Schlosser to-day visited the sheriff's office and requested that official to take care of him and said that if he did not he would get full of liquor and go to Oregon and kill his wife. He appeared to be suffering from mental derangement but was allowed to depart as harmless.

Invitations have been issued to a reception tendered by Gen J W Sprague and Mr and Mrs Otis Sprague to Mr John S Baker and bride on Tuesday evening next at the Tacoma. The reception will be the greatest social event of the season.

FROM ASTORIA

The Husband of Pete Olsen's Victim in Town

ASTORIA May 19—Henry Lyons husband of the murdered Mrs Millie Lyons at Napa Cal February [illegible] was in the city to-day. He says he is confident that Pete Olsen the murderer is in this vicinity. Olsen arrived at Tacoma three years ago and [illegible] on the Columbia river for two years. Lyons has been looking for Olsen since the murder and says there is no use in looking in California for Olsen is around here somewhere. He has about given up the search is tired and is going home. The rewards for Olsen's apprehension aggregate $[illegible]. One of the officers of the Idaho says that on the last trip of that vessel to Alaska a man answering closely Olsen's description was a passenger to Juneau.

FIGHT WITH GUNS BETWEEN OFFICERS

U S MARSHALS PURSUING A COUNTERFEITER MISTAKEN FOR THE CRIMINAL AND COMMANDED TO HALT

ELLENSBURG May 17

Two of a gang of counterfeiters were arrested here yesterday. A boy of 17 Fred Hyle turned state's evidence. One of the men engaged was arrested. The chief escaped and has not been taken. He was watched for down at a bridge some five miles below town, but the officers were surprised at a bridge over the Yakima seven miles below town by a party of three men who were after the same counterfeiter one Charlie Brown by name. Mistaking the officers for Brown, they commanded the officers—Deputy U S Marshal John Arthur and Marshal I R Wallace of Ellensburg,—to throw up their hands. The order was disregarded. A second command was not obeyed. They then fired on the officers who returned the fire wounding one man in the hand slightly and tearing the stock off the gun (a rifle) of another. The attacking party was overpowered and arrested. Their names are Sim Smith Harry Pease and D E Olsco all of West Kittitas. Byron Chism is under arrest while Brown is at large.

The officers did their duty well and are entitled to much credit for their perseverance in pursuing the guilty parties. Their rendezvous was in a small cabin about a mile above town. The dies and some of the metal of which the dollars and half dollars were made were found in the creek near the cabin. They passed $24 of their spurious coin in North Yakima and $1 about Ellensburg. The [illegible] is very poor and badly executed. It is hoped Brown will be caught.

FROM SALEM ON BICYCLES

A JOLLY PARTY MAKE THE TRIP TO PORTLAND IN [illegible] THAN ELEVEN HOURS

Eight young bicycle riders arrived in this city yesterday evening from Salem having accomplished the journey between the capital city and Portland in [illegible] hours. Considering the [illegible] of the road the time while not [illegible] remark, [illegible] was quite good. Five of the [illegible] came from their homes in Salem by [illegible] to Salem and there [illegible] started [illegible] the latter place. The following are the names of the eight persons who made the trip: [illegible] from Monmouth, Glenn Lewis Salem, Al Whitten Monmouth, Charley Smith Dixie, Jack Smith Dixie, [illegible] Salem, Berry [illegible] Salem, [illegible] Dixie.

The party left Salem at [illegible] A M and reached Portland [illegible] P M. They [illegible] stage to [illegible] the way passing the [illegible] and circling the [illegible] Miss [illegible] [illegible] the morning [illegible] cloudy and [illegible] reasonably warm. Notwithstanding the trip was [illegible] the young [illegible] the ride very well and reached their destination in good spirits [illegible] ous points along the route where the road proved very rough and steep the bicyclists dismounted their silent and tireless steeds and walked. Al Whitten a very [illegible] looking young man who was interviewed by an OREGONIAN reporter about the trip said:

"We stood the ride very well. Not being used to making long and rough trips I got pretty tired myself but the other boys didn't seem to mind it at all. We dismounted and walked over the roughest and steepest portions of the road but we could have ridden almost the entire distance. The long trip made occasional walking quite a rest to us. Between Salem and Oregon City the road is generally smooth and we made tolerably good time for the distance. However," said Whittaker smilingly, "we didn't find it like traveling over a plank road way or rink track. It pulled a good deal harder on the muscles of our legs. We stopped only a few times before reaching Oregon City, just to get our wind and rest our limbs only for a few minutes you know. At Oregon City we made quite a little stay and had our dinner there. Below Oregon City we had a very rough time and our progress was slow and quite laborious. The road was broken and hard and heavy to travel over. If the road between Oregon City and Portland was as even as from Salem to the falls city I feel certain we could have reached here by 3 o'clock or 3:30 and not been any more fatigued."

"What did you come down for?" asked the reporter. "Just for a pleasant lark or to engage in any bicycling contests?"

"Oh we came down for a little run you know. Then there were to be some races I believe but they were postponed. We shall probably remain here several days before taking the road for our homes."

THE DIVORCE MILL

TWO NEW SUITS BEGUN YESTERDAY—THE WEBER CASE

In the state circuit court yesterday Anna M Hammond commenced a suit for a divorce from Thomas G Hammond on the ground of cruel treatment. The parties were married July [illegible] in Tunstall England and have two children of which plaintiff asks the care and custody.

Amanda A Gates asks for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between her and William Gates on the ground of cruel treatment and desertion. They were married October [illegible] in Portland and have one child.

The divorce suit entitled Weber vs Weber which has for a long time engaged the attention of referee Newbury was argued yesterday and will shortly be submitted to the court. The testimony taken in the matter covers 450 closely written pages of legal cap. Referee Newbury will have his report prepared in a few days. In this case one original and two amended complaints have been filed the last only a few days ago and referred to the referee. Besides a number of alleged detectives have been employed and witnesses brought from Olympia and other points. It is therefore not surprising, that the evidence is exhaustive. Like marriage the divorce fever seems to be catching: one of the female witnesses in the Weber case having applied since giving her testimony before the referee. Belles frequently become dissatisfied and the witness above mentioned appears to be particularly so afflicted as since bringing action for a dissolution she wants to withdraw it.

THE EAST SIDE

EXERCISES AT THE ADVENTISTS' CAMPMEETING—SHAMEFUL NEGLECT—ETC

The introductory services of the Seventh Day Adventist campmeeting began Wednesday night. The audience which was large nearly 500 filled the pavilion so that it became necessary to remove the partition between it and the adjoining large tent to give them seating accommodations. The services were conducted by Elder Farnesworth who took for his text the beatitude of Christ "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness for they shall be filled." The discourse was a fervent one and judging from the rapt attention given was duly appreciated by the audience. Many people from both sides of the river were in attendance.

There is said to be some 250 people encamped upon the ground, and are distributed in about seventy tents. Many more are expected to arrive.

The business sessions of the day consisted of a meeting of the conference also of the tract society and Sabbath school association. The conference was organized with delegates in attendance from churches in different parts of the field extending from Lyndon W T on the north to Coos county Or on the south.

Elder R A Underwood of Ohio arrived in the evening as advertised. As an error has occurred in the small circulars the public will please take notice that at the regular day service the preaching will be at 10:30 A M and 2:30 P M with bible reading at 9:30 A M. Special services will be as announced in small circulars.

Elder M M Warren will preach in the Christian church on I street East Portland Saturday at [illegible] P M and Lord's day at 11 A M and [illegible] P M and Monday evening at [illegible]

SHAMEFUL NEGLECT

A gentleman came in from Columbia slough last night and related the incidents of a case of heartless neglect and destitution. Some time since the mother of a family of seven children died [illegible] Since her death the father [illegible] has neglected the little ones in a most shameful manner. The gentleman stated that there is a house [illegible] and that the mother is the child from the [illegible] who begs away from [illegible] all day. Our informant [illegible] still as he passed that way last night he heard them calling for their mamma and wailing for [illegible] [illegible] it is thought that [illegible] better cared for in future.

It is said that the Vancouver ferry franchise has been sold to the Sellwood & Vancouver Street Car Company.

The M E Sunday school excursion to Oswego [illegible] Saturday [illegible] for furnishing refreshments [illegible]

Rev Dr Harrington [illegible] has been called East by the sudden and dangerous illness of his father who resides at Sycamore Ill. He went yesterday afternoon and will be absent about three weeks.

The ladies of the Y M C A auxiliary committee met at the residence of Mrs Gwin and made partial arrangements for giving another entertainment within the next two weeks. Some novel features will be introduced.

While Mrs Thomas was driving a horse and cart on Holladay addition last evening the horse took fright and ran several blocks when the lady was thrown out but escaped being hurt seriously [illegible] she was somewhat bruised by the fall. Horse and cart were not damaged.

While Mr Campbell deputy prosecuting attorney was out at Pleasant Home Wednesday he made an examination of the ground where the shooting took place and seems fully convinced that Carpenter is the man who did the shooting. He further says there is considerable indignation in that vicinity and some rash action was even suggested. But better and cooler judgment prevailed and it was concluded that it would be better to allow the law to take its course. The trial of the case this afternoon at the justice court is looked forward to with interest.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK May 19. The sentiment on the street to-day was decidedly adverse to any further advance in stocks and while there was [illegible] calculated to affect the market [illegible] realizations and sales for short account [illegible] [illegible] steady at the [illegible] prices over last evening [illegible] were depressed fractions [illegible] [illegible] a reaction occurred which [illegible] [illegible] the decline was renewed with force and was [illegible] the lowest of the day. [illegible] Bonds were dull and steady.

Foreign advices the past week have been of firm markets. California cargoes advancing to the rate quoted at the turn of the year. Chicago early options close higher late ones weak. New York shows little change from a week ago. San Francisco has reported a very active call business at prices not materially changed. Spot wheat there is still inactive. The tonnage taken has been [illegible] shippers who have wheat and are not in the market as buyers to fill ships. It is currently reported the wheat delivered there on buyer season this month is for immediate shipment. There is a fair business in prospect but such matters are known only to those behind the scenes and any prediction carries with it great risk of turning out wrong.

MILLSTUFF—Market firm throughout. The [illegible] is very good and stocks only about sufficient. Corn is now in low stock as none has come in with the new freight rates. Jobbing prices are: Bran $ 1[illegible] shorts $[illegible] chop $28@30, ground barley $30@32 cracked corn $27 50@30, whole do $2[illegible] oil meal $32 50 per ton.

OATS—Receipts the past week have been [illegible] centals some falling away from previous weeks. Shipments by steamers show an increase but include some arriving one and two weeks ago. Advices have indicated no material change at San Francisco although the feeling appears somewhat better. Buyers still quote and have bought good to choice feed here at 5[illegible] filling orders at the usual advance. Recent dry weather has given farmers a chance to seed. Up to ten days ago very little seeding had been done and it was feared the acreage would suffer. As it is it does not promise a full one.

ONIONS—Last new California in sold at 3c. Next arrivals may be cheaper. Old in small stock and offerings appear to have ceased.

FRUITS—Apples scarce and new arrivals next to nothing. The range is 50c@$1 [illegible] Oranges sell well at $[illegible] Lemons firm at $5 [illegible] Bananas $4. Cherries sold last at [illegible] New supplies due to-night. A few Oregon berries have come in. California come in poor condition.

VEGETABLES—Selling prices are: Cabbage 2½c, peas 4c rhubarb 1c asparagus 3[illegible] per lb celery 90c cauliflower $1 25 per dozen tomatoes $[illegible] per box.

BUTTER—Oregon store and good roll has continued to arrive in large quantities and the market is weaker as well as very irregular. A large portion of that arriving is slow of sale at 10@15c with 20c by a good article. Dairy does better yet 25c is the extreme. California is in light receipt roll selling at 0[illegible]

SUGARS—An advance of one eighth was telegraphed after the close of business yesterday. New sixty day quotations are: Golden C [illegible] extra C [illegible] confectioners A [illegible] dry granulated [illegible] cube crushed fine crushed and powdered [illegible]

DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and AGUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.
